— THE HORUS HERESY —

THE TEMPUS

ARMIES OF THE WARMASTER

WARHAMMER
40,000

FINAL

IT IS THE 31ST MILLENNIUM. THE PROMISE OF THE AGE OF THE EMPEROR NOW FACES ITS GREATEST CHALLENGE AS HORUS, FAVOURED SON OF THE EMPEROR, HAS DECLARED HIMSELF LORD OF MANKIND IN HIS FATHER'S PLACE. HISTORY RECORDS YOU AS ONE OF THE COMMANDERS TAKING PART IN WHAT HAS BECOME KNOWN AS "THE HORUS HERESY"; A CAMPAIGN THAT CHRONICLES THE EPIC STRUGGLE FOR COMMAND OF THE IMPERIUM...

IMPORTANT!

THIS IS NOT A TOURNAMENT. YOU WILL GET MORE OUT OF THE WEEKEND IF YOU ENJOY THE EXPERIENCE RATHER THAN FOCUS ON THE OUTCOME OF YOUR GAMES. TRY AND PLAY WITH YOUR OPPONENT RATHER THAN AGAINST THEM.

The Tempus Fugitives have designed this campaign weekend to be (we hope) as enjoyable as possible. Once again (all together now) it is important to remember that the campaign weekend is not a tournament. If you are expecting anything other than to just have fun – turn back now! The games you play are all connected to part of a greater battle – the Horus Heresy by humanity to claim the galaxy from the alien species that dominate it.

Games Workshop has a really fantastic Throne of Skulls Grand Tournament programme and should you want to get involved in a true test of your skill at Warhammer 40,000 please contact Direct Sales on 0115 91 40000 or see the events page at www.uk.games-workshop.com

The Age of the Emperor: The Horus Heresy campaign weekend presents Games Workshop hobbyists with an opportunity to play in a different style than they may be used to. In short, Tempus Fugitives' campaigns are all about trying out new ideas and contributing to an adventure. In fact the story is almost as important as the actual games themselves and players should be prepared to get into the mindset of the army they have brought to battle with.

If you and your opponent have a great game, the actual outcome of the battle becomes less important. Once more (with feeling), you are playing with your opponent – not against them.

The team running the event is there to help describe the campaign story as it unfolds and they will work out what impact your games have upon it. Most importantly they are there to ensure everybody has a great time. Remember – it's only toy soldiers!

Games will be driven by the narrative of the campaign. This means that during the course of the event various games may appear a bit one-sided when viewed from the usual gaming perspective.

In any war, commanders have to deal with unfair and unbalanced situations, using cunning and skill to prevail against overwhelming odds, and the same may be true for you. However, whatever the scenario or battlefield conditions, your game and your story will always count in the big scheme of things; the Tempus Fugitives will always try to make sure that you are not asked to play a game you simply can't win before any dice are cast. There will always be critically important mission objectives that you will need to strive to achieve.

Most importantly remember that, as this is a team event, even if you lose your individual battle your taskforce or faction may still do well overall; don't worry about 'winning', just think about having a good time.

It is our hope that we can repay some small part of the kindness that the gaming community has shown us over the years and organise a top notch event that everyone can enjoy.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This weighty tome you hold in your slightly clammy hands is the second exciting instalment in the epic Age of the Emperor saga - the latest Tempus Fugitives Warhammer 40,000 campaign weekend. We have not arrived at this point by mere chance or by some whim; instead we are here because of a number of important people helped us along the way. The bad news is that the list is quite lengthy - so we'll group them together so as to hopefully not leave anyone out.

Most important of all - the Tempus Fugitives would like to thank Games Workshop for giving many of us jobs and all of us a grim darkness to play with. Without their universe to run around in, we'd all be playing Risk or Sudoku...

The wives, girlfriends, boyfriends, partners and right hands of the Tempus Fugitives - for letting their worse halves go and play with lead dollies 'up north' several times a year. The Tempus Fugitives are most serious about their work and no fun was had in the preparation of this weekend... Any rumours of 80's disco dancing on the revolving stage in the Reflex bar in Nottingham high street are completely unfounded.

My personal thanks go to Andrew Fish for his continued input and creativity both with the campaign packs as well as the website.

The UK Events team deserve mention here. The support received over the years from Brian Aderson and Andy Joyce has meant that we have had the confidence to try and pull these events off.

And last but not least we'd like to thank all those who have visited our website and forums. The feedback and support given to our campaign weekends has encouraged us to try and put together the best Warhammer 40,000 campaign weekend we possibly could.

OUTLINE OF PLAY

In addition to your fully painted army and this campaign pack you will need the following:

- The English language version of the Warhammer 40,000 5th Ed rulebook and the Planetstrike expansion
- Dice, Templates, objective counters and Tape measure
- Superglue and poly cement
- The appropriate English language version of your Codex and any Imperial Armour material relating to your army. No photocopies!
- At least two copies of your army roster (one to be handed in during registration)
- A Tray to carry your models
- Pen and paper
- Somewhere to sleep overnight. (For help contact Nottingham Information Centre on 0115 915 5330)
- Money for refreshments. Hot drinks and doughnuts are provided in the mornings as part of your ticket as are lunch on both days and dinner on Saturday.

How the Campaign Works

Upon arrival each player will be assigned to a team, called a Task Force, containing up to ten players. You and the other players in your Task Force are allied field commanders fighting as part of the armies loyal to the Emperor of Mankind or the Warmaster Horus as they battle it out to determine the fate of the galaxy.

The campaign will be fought in five rounds and take place on a number of Warzones. Each round a series of battles will be fought using the 5th Edition Warhammer 40,000 game rules. Each player within the campaign will take part in each round.

Each faction has a number of objectives to achieve over the course of the weekend. These objectives will be revealed as the campaign unfolds.

There are a number of Task Forces for each faction each with their own agendas, strengths and weaknesses. When you purchase your ticket you are assigned to a taskforce. Before the first game on Saturday you will be asked to gather at one of the task force muster points and nominate a Task Force Commander. The role of the Task Force Commander is of crucial importance to the team and it is the Commander's responsibility at the end of each game to collate results and hand those back to your Faction Marshal, who will be represented by a member of the event team. Do not elect an incompetent Taskforce Commander – you will regret it!

Initiative

The initiative in the first round is determined by the narrative for each Warzone and is indicated under the Warzone description. Initiative in each subsequent round is determined by the results of the previous round.

At the beginning of each round Task Forces will receive a Mission Briefing. The Taskforce Commander (taking advice from the Taskforce) must then decide upon the battle stance of the turn and may even have the choice of which mission you will play to achieve them. The mission selected must be the same for the whole Task Force – you cannot change it depending on who your opponent is.

Once they have made their joint decision the players in Task Force with the Initiative must select the tables on which the games will be played and sit at the table edge facing towards the stage wall. Players on the opposing side then come over to their assigned Warzone and pair up.

Deployment is determined as normal unless specified in the mission.

Battle Stance

Your campaign points determine the outcome of the campaign. Each round you may set how your taskforce intends to fight – Aggressive, Defensive or Balanced (which is the default setting of 3 campaign points for a win and 1 for a draw). Aggressive stance awards 4 campaign points for wins but nothing for draws or losses, defensively rewards wins and draws equally with 2 campaign points. As you must decide your Battle Stance before you play your games each round you have to rely on your judgement as to its outcome. Choose carefully as picking an aggressive stance makes your draws worthless, while defensive stance squanders any bonus from winning. If in doubt choose a balanced stance.

As your games finish you must report the result (Win, Lose or Draw) to the stage along with your opponent. You cannot give your results in without your opponent present.

FIGHTING IN THE AGE OF THE EMPEROR

The Tempus Fugitives

If you have any questions about rules, registration details or the event then either e-mail us at: tfevents@tempusfugitives.co.uk or write to us at:

The Tempus Fugitives
24 Rowan Green East
Brentwood
Essex
CM13 2ED

From the moment of entry into the event the decisions of all Tempus Fugitive event staff (who will be clearly identified at the commencement of the event) in all issues of fair play and health and safety are final. No discussion will be entered into once a decision is made. Players are asked to participate in the Age of the Emperor campaign weekends in a sporting and co-operative manner. Players that fail to do so will be penalised in a simple Yellow and Red card system issued at the Tempus Fugitive event team's discretion. A Yellow Card offence which is repeated will result in a Red Card being given which requires the player to be excluded from the event.

5th Edition Rules of Engagement

The Warhammer 40,000 5th Edition rules will be used for this campaign weekend, as will the latest Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) documents from the Games Workshop website. These errata have been specifically updated for 5th Edition and are of real importance for players taking part.

The Warhammer 40,000 Cities of Death expansion will not be used in this campaign.

Campaign Rules of Engagement

Except for the Heavy Assault force, each player will require an army selected from a single army list - see the section entitled Permitted Armies.

All models within your armies should conform to "what you see is what you get" (WYSIWYG). In other words, all equipment that can be appropriately shown should be clearly modelled on each miniature.

Units (but not formations) from the Apocalypse Expansion, Apocalypse Reload and Imperial Armour: Apocalypse are permitted in this campaign. Home-made Apocalypse datafax are not permitted.

If a vehicle is described in more than one publication (for example the Griffon), the codex takes priority for its rules, if it is not found in your codex, then use its Apocalypse datasheet rules, if it does not appear in a specific Apocalypse datasheet (not including formations) then use Imperial Armour rules. Please contact the Tempus Fugitives if in doubt.

With a few notable exceptions, you may not include Special Characters or special units (such as Legion of the Damned) from any army Codex. Any named characters available to the armies participating in the Horus Heresy will be indicated on the relevant army selection page.

No allies of any kind may be taken in an army (including Kroot Mercenaries, Grey Knights etc). Instead Armies may use the Faction Specific Units instead which are found in this document.

Any reference to 'your army' or 'the entire army' always refers to your specific forces and not those of any player allied to you or playing with you in a doubles game. This avoids confusing issues such as multiple Legion tactics or other such benefits.

Any reference to 'friendly' units or models may be applied to both your units as well as those of any allied players you are battling alongside in a doubles game.

A NOTE ON UNIQUE UNITS AND NAMED CHARACTERS

The whole point of playing in a 'historical' setting is to allow you to re-enact some of the fantastic battles you have read about in the books and novels. You must include at least one named character in your army. An Emperor's Children army without Tarvitz or Lucius (or Fulgrim) just isn't quite as exciting! However, as this is a wargame it is possible that you will either play alongside other players with the same characters or may even pair up with them for the doubles. Just assume that either one of the duplicate characters is just a similar character or pick another partner.

Painting and the Best Army Award

The Age of the Emperor was a time of hope and glory for the fledgling Imperium of Mankind. We would ask all players to choose painting schemes that reflect the Warhammer 40,000 universe during this time and doing this will greatly increase everyone's enjoyment of the campaign.

All models MUST be painted and representative of the appropriate type of troop. Models must be scratch built or at least be based on or comprise of at least 50% Citadel miniature components. You cannot use a model that does not meet these criteria. If you are planning a conversion that you think may need clarification please contact us before the event. You cannot represent units with models that are smaller than the Citadel equivalent.

For example, an Epic scale space marine on a 40,000 slottabase is not acceptable.

At the Age of the Emperor: The Horus Heresy Campaign Weekend we will give an award for the Best Army. This is awarded to the player who participates in the weekend with a force that, in the opinion of both players and judges, is the best in terms of painting and character.

To qualify as the 'Best Army' particular attention will be paid to well themed armies which reflect the time of the Horus Heresy as humanity pushes outwards from Terra to reclaim the galaxy as their birthright.

Because we believe that due credit should go to players that have painted their own armies, only players who have painted their armies themselves may be eligible for the coveted award of Best Army. We ask all participants to be honest if shortlisted.

A number of armies will be shortlisted on the Saturday lunch break and then will be voted on by the players during the Sunday lunch break. The winner will be announced at the end of the Campaign Weekend.

Awards Ceremony

The Age of the Emperor was a time of heroism and the Awards Ceremony is an opportunity to give recognition to those who have made great sacrifice on the altar of war. As soon as possible after the conclusion of the final game we will begin the awards ceremony and we strongly recommend all players to stay for the ceremony to cheer (or commiserate with) those awarded!

GAME 1 VANGUARD DOUBLES

Small forces sent ahead of the main army, Vanguard Forces are selected according to the following restrictions. Part of the fun of these small armies is doing something a bit unique that you might not have the time to do with a larger army.

IMPORTANT: YOU MUST INCLUDE AT LEAST ONE NAMED CHARACTER IN EACH ARMYLIST

Each player must have no more than 1000 points.

Vanguard Forces fight the Capture and Control mission using the Spearhead deployment from the 5th Edition Warhammer 40,000 rulebook. If sides are tied on Objectives then Kill Points are used to determine the victor. All non-vehicle units count as scoring unless stated otherwise.

Vanguard Forces must have one Elites choice. You may spend remaining points from anywhere in the Codex subject to the Vanguard Force Organisation chart provided. Vanguard Veterans may be taken as Elites.

No Formations, Legendary Units or units with Structure points

Artillery, Flyers or vehicles with an armour value of 14 may not be taken. Vehicles such as these are not deployed for the type of missions undertaken by a Vanguard Force.

No Monstrous or Gargantuan creatures or more than 1 unit with an armour value of 12 or higher on any facing (except dedicated transports)

No models with better than a 3+ save are allowed

GAME 2 & 4 - PLANETSTRIKE

Once the enemy has been located, larger forces are brought to bear. It is a calculated use of force in a Planetstrike that tries to achieve the objectives of the war before either side can mobilise the heaviest of their armour. Planetstrike armies are chosen using the following rules:

IMPORTANT: YOU MUST INCLUDE AT LEAST ONE NAMED CHARACTER IN EACH ARMYLIST

- A Planetstrike army must be no more than 2000 points.
- Each Player has 3 Stratagem Points to spend on Stratagems from the Planetstrike Expansion. You may not use the Scorched Skies Stratagem. Only Martian Mechanicum forces may take the Teleport Assault Stratagem.
- Planetstrike armies fight missions from the Planetstrike expansion for Warhammer 40,000. If sides are tied on Objectives then Kill Points are used to determine the victor. All units count as scoring unless stated otherwise.
- Planetstrike armies may include models or units from the Vanguard Force
- Your Planetstrike army is selected using the Attackers or Defender Planetstrike Force Organisation Chart found in the Planetstrike Expansion for the 5th Edition of Warhammer 40,000. Players must have an armylist to play as both attacker and defender in Planetstrike. It is anticipated that you will use each army at least once in the campaign.
- Your Planetstrike army may NOT include units with Structure points, Gargantuan Creatures or any Apocalypse Formations. They may include Legendary Units.
- Any Flyers use the rules for aircraft found in the Apocalypse expansion. All hits against Flyers are glancing and Flyers can never count as obscured.
- Vehicles detailed only in Forge World's Imperial Armour publications may be used. If a vehicle is described in more than one publication the most recent version must be used.
- Units (including vehicles) carrying Missile Launchers, Autocannon, or vehicle mounted Defensive weapons may be upgraded to AA capability for +10 per weapon. This does not apply to any weapon type that has a blast radius. These weapons (like all pintle mounted weapons) hit flyers using the model's BS rather than only on 6s.
- Each table has a set amount of terrain on them. The Defender may remove any terrain pieces they wish and may arrange them in any way they desire before the game begins. They may not add any terrain except for the Planetstrike Fortifications detailed overleaf.

PLANETSTRIKE FORTIFICATIONS

INDOMITABLE FORTRESS

- Your army may not include an indomitable Fortress.

BASTIONS

- Your army must include a Bastion. This must either be entirely scratch built or be based on the model with Product Code: 99120199018. A Bastion is always placed by the Defender as a stronghold during setup. The Bastion model owned by the Attacking player is not used unless the mission played is Desperate Assault.
- Unless specified in the army special rules, all Bastions are armed with four automated Heavy bolters (one per facing). All Bastions are considered to have four Firepoints on the mid-level, an open roof and three Firepoints on the lowest level with one doorway (unless modelled differently and explained to your oponent before the game).
- You may take up to two additional Bastions as the Defender. These additional Bastions may be combined together in a single Bastion which may have either eight automated Heavy bolters (two per facing) or four automated Lascannons.
- The Defending player may exchange either additional Bastion for a Landing Platform.
- Each additional Bastion or Landing Platform included in the Defender's army entitles the Attacker to gain an additional Stratagem point.
- Drop Bastions (purchased as a Defensive Stratagem or given by a mission special rules) do not provide additional Stratagem Points for either player, nor do they count as Additional Bastions for the purposes of defence lines and Landing Platforms. Nice try though.

INTERCEPTOR GUNS & COMM RELAYS

- Each player may deploy an Interceptor Gun or Comm Relay for each Bastion or Landing Platform they place in the game. This includes Drop Bastions, although the Interceptor Gun or Comm Relay must be mounted on the Drop Bastion.
- An Interceptor Gun or Comm Relay may be placed on each Bastion or may be deployed as a freestanding artillery emplacement with an Armour Value of 10.

AEGIS DEFENCE LINES

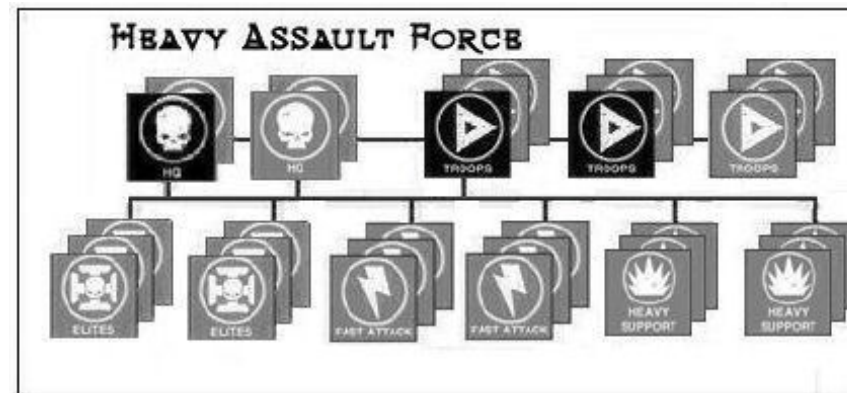

- Your Defending army may include up to 28" of Aegis Defence line for each Bastion in your army.

GAMES 3 & 5 - HEAVY ASSAULT FORCE

Smashing aside all but the most solidly built defences, the Heavy Assault Force represents conflict on an almost unimaginable scale. The army is subject to the following restrictions:

IMPORTANT: YOU MUST INCLUDE AT LEAST ONE NAMED CHARACTER IN EACH ARMYLIST

- Must be no more than 2500 points and is selected from the Heavy Assault Force Organisation Chart. They may include Legendary Units (which, unless specified, count as HQ choices).
- Up to 1000 points of the Heavy Assault Force may be spent to include a single Gargantuan Creatures or a single unit with Structure Points. The unit taken counts as a Heavy Support Choice unless otherwise specified. These units use the rules found in the Apocalypse expansion.
- ALLIES: Up to 1000 points of the Heavy Assault Force may be chosen freely from any allied armylist in the same faction but may not take more than one Legion (so a Iron Warriors player loyal to the Warmaster may have Imperial Guard, Cult Mechanicus and Daemon units but may not include White Scars or Death Guard). These allied forces cannot be the compulsory HQ or Troop units in the army. Allies still count as selections on the force organisation chart.
- Daemon units must enter play using the Daemonic Assault rules found in Codex Daemons. In that case, split the total number of Daemonic units into two groups and follow the rules accordingly.
- A Heavy Assault Force usually (but not always) fights the Annihilation mission from page 91 of the 5th Edition Warhammer 40,000 rulebook and deploys using the Pitched Battle rules. Remember: Taskforces with the initiative may decide whether or not to undertake a special mission to achieve their objectives so make sure your army works in more than one type of mission. All members of the Task Force must play the same mission and they must inform their opponents before the game begins.
- Any Flyers use the rules for aircraft found in the Apocalypse expansion. Each unit taken counts as a Fast Attack Choice unless otherwise specified. All hits against Flyers are glancing and Flyers can never count as obscured.
- Vehicles detailed only in Forge World's Imperial Armour publications may be used. If a vehicle is described in more than one publication the most recent version must be used.
- Units (including vehicles) carrying Missile Launchers, Autocannon, or vehicle mounted Defensive weapons may be upgraded to AA capability for +10 per weapon. This does not apply to any weapon type that has a blast radius. These weapons (like all pintle mounted weapons) hit flyers using the model's BS rather than only on 6s.
- Heavy Assault games 3 is a doubles game played on a 12x4 table. Game 5 is a singles game played on a standard 6x4 table.

A GALAXY IN FLAMES

SEGMENTUM SOLAR

Birthplace of humanity and seat of the Emperor of Mankind. It is from here that the Emperor's Will still holds in almost absolute terms.

SEGMENTUM PACIFICUS

Located in the distant galactic West this region is beset by sporadic communication failures and scattered forces whose loyalty has yet to be declared. While a force has majority control here all players of that faction may force their opponent to re-roll a successful reserve roll as the fragmented communication channels are taken advantage of by the occupying forces.

ULTIMA SEGMENTUM

Located in the galactic East, this region contains the bulk of the Warmaster's fleet and allied forces. As they make their way spinward more disheartened battlegroups once loyal to the Emperor now declare openly for the Warmaster.

The Warmaster's Forces have the Initiative here. While the Warmaster's forces have majority control here all players loyal to the Warmaster may re-roll a single dice roll once per battle.

SEGMENTUM TEMPESTUS

Located in the galactic South, this vast region is of critical importance to control of the galaxy but is still infested with the barbaric alien species known as the Orks. Any of humanity's forces who are deployed in this region must contend with Ork raids as well as their enemies in this civil war.

This Segmentum counts as two for establishing victory purposes for the campaign. Any force attempting to fight in this warzone suffers d6 AP 4 wounds (or glancing hits) to d3 random units to represent skirmishes with the Orks prior to battle.

SEGMENTUM OBSCURUS

Located in the galactic North, this region was once the heart of the Eldar Empire. Though the Great Crusade has driven them to the fringe, the lack of human infrastructure makes resupplying in the field extremely difficult.

While a force has majority control here all players of that faction may force their opponent to re-roll successful to hit rolls for one units shooting for one turn representing them running low on ammunition.

WARZONES OF THE HORUS HERESY

"WHEN THE TRAITOR'S HAND STRIKES, IT STRIKES WITH THE STRENGTH OF A LEGION." - THE WARMASTER HORUS

WARZONE: DIAMAT SEGMENTUM TEMPESTUS

A class I-Ultra Forge World, Diamat is of critical tactical importance to the Warmaster's efforts. If he is to reinforce Isstvan and fuel his warmachines for the coming conflict, he must gain the support of as many of the Martian Mechanicum's worlds as he can. Lion El'Jonson and his Dark Angels Legion are en-route to Diamat and are planning on assaulting this world with elements of the Imperial Army to wrest it from those agents loyal to the Warmaster. The Dark Angels expect a fierce fight however as the Warmaster has dispatched a Battlegroup of his Sons of Horus to reinforce the planet. The Armies of the Emperor have the Initiative here.

WARZONE: EURYNOME

Eurynome is on the distant Eastern Fringe and is of little tactical value to the Warmaster. It is a lush and fertile world which initial surveys by Roboute Guilliman and his Ultramarines Legion show as having been inhabited by a primitive civilisation millennia ago. They became extinct after falling to barbarism and cannibalistic cults but their legacy is a series of strange ruins which stud the surface. Planning for a conflict in the Viridian System, Guilliman and several chapters of his Legion are massing near this world before meeting up with their main forces on Calth. With Calth now under attack by the Word Bearers, Guilliman and his forces are preparing to reinforce their brothers when they are attacked by warp creatures summoned by the ruins and the Word Bearers legion assisted by elements of the Emperor's Children and World Eaters. Battle was soon joined by a spearhead of Blood Angels fresh from their engagements on Signus Prime. As well as elements from the Expedition force commanded by Guilliman. The Armies of the Warmaster have the Initiative here.

WARZONE: GRAIA

A verdant agri-world, Graia is home to several Imperial Army Regiments as well as a major producer of foodstuffs and supplies for much of the Emperor's forces in the Segmentum. Still raided by Eldar corsairs, the build up of Imperial forces make it a key staging ground for the Segmentum. The Warmaster has ordered Perturabo to lead a force of Iron Warriors, Alpha Legion and World Eaters to seize the planet for their own. The Phalanx, the vast space fortress of Rogal Dorn and his Imperial Fists is first to respond to the Iron Warriors assault and soon both forces are locked in a brutal ground war. The Armies of the Warmaster have the Initiative here.

SEGMENTUM OBSCURUS

WARZONE: ISSTVAN V

The Emperor has ordered the deployment of seven full Space Marine Legions under the overall command of Ferrus Manus. They are tasked with assaulting the Warmaster's command centre on Isstvan V. Unknown to the Emperor of Mankind, the Night Lords of Konrad Curze, the Iron Warriors of Perturabo, the Word Bearers of Lorgar, and the Alpha Legion of Alpharius and Omegon had already pledged support for the Warmaster in secret, forming a "fifth column" which would strike at the most decisive moment against the Salamanders lead by Vulkan, the Raven Guard under Corax and Ferrus and his Iron Hands. The Armies of the Warmaster have the Initiative here.

WARZONE: PROSPERO

SEGMENTUM PACIFICUS

The homeworld of the Thousand Sons Legion, Magus and his sons have long studied the art of sorcery here. The Emperor has commanded that Leman Russ and his Space Wolves bring the red cyclops to heel and bring him to Terra. However, the Warmaster has had those orders changed to an edict seemingly from the Emperor ordering that Magnus and his Thousand Sons are to be utterly destroyed. The City of Light, Tizca, is the location Russ has targeted for Planetstrike. Supporting his efforts are the forces of Jaghatai Khan and his White Scars who are engaging in a series of hit and run attacks on the outlying worlds in the system in an attempt to deny the sorcerers much needed aid while the Wolves of Fenris go about their bloody work. The Armies of the Emperor have the Initiative here.

FIGHTING FORCES OF THE WARMASTER

The lists on the following pages present the participating forces for the Warmaster's War Fleet. In all cases the most recent edition of the Codex will be used. These are the only armies permitted in this Faction during the weekend. If you have any further questions regarding army selection, please contact the event organisers before the weekend and check the forums at www.tempusfugitives.co.uk.

The published Codices used in this campaign for the Warmaster's War Fleet are: Codex Space Marines; Codex Imperial Guard and Codex Chaos Daemons. Furthermore the Cult Mechanicus Codex found on the Tempus Fugitives website is used to represent the Martian Mechanicum. All supplementary rules to your Codex can be found in this pack.

There are several units which may be taken by many of the armies during the Age of the Emperor: The Horus Heresy. They are detailed on the following pages and are considered fully usable for this campaign weekend. However, they are not to be considered official in any way outside of the Age of the Emperor: The Horus Heresy Campaign Weekend. Where a unit is restricted to one army, it is clearly indicated in the unit entry.

The Grav-Attack has its cost reduced to 90 points if the model is converted from an underarm deodorant stick and a medicine spoon (see the Warhammer 40,000 Compendium for details).

The Grav-attack is a standard Imperium design produced in considerable numbers by the weapon-shops of the Martian Mechanicum. The vehicle is powered by a standard graviton reaction motor utilising gravitational counter thrust engines and suspensors. A single jet engine facilitates high-speed forwards movement along roads and other 'safe' flat surfaces. The hull might be made from any of a variety of materials depending on local availability. Ideally, armour comprises a ceramite core overlaid by cellular layers of plastic and an outer coating of silicate. The turret affords all round vision and fire for the lascannon.

Options: May purchase Extra Armour at +15 pts.

Improved Communications:

If the Halcyon Command Rhino is deployed on the table then the Imperial player may re-roll a single Reserve roll once per turn. Additionally units may re-roll the Scatter and Distance dice when deploying via Deep Strike. They must accept the re-rolled result.

Orbital Bombardment: A Halcyon Command Rhino has the authority to call down a bombardment from a Strike Cruiser. This ability can be used once per game in its Shooting phase, providing that the Halcyon Rhino did not move in the preceding Movement phase. Calling down an orbital bombardment otherwise counts as firing a ranged weapon and uses the following profile:

Range: Unlimited Str. 10 AP 1 Type Ordnance, Large Blast, Barrage

Note that an orbital bombardment will always scatter the full 2D6" and cannot be modified by the crew's Ballistic Skill.

0-1 LAND RAIDER SPARTAN

HEAVY SUPPORT CHOICE

IMPERIAL ARMY AND SPACE MARINE LEGIONS ONLY

300 POINTS

	BS	FRONT	SIDE	REAR
Spartan	4	14	14	14

The Spartan is a rare variant of the Phobos pattern Land Raider. It is distinguishable by its battlement style armoured top deck and its extended hull which projects ahead of the track units. With greatly reduced firepower, the Spartan was designed purely as an infantry delivery vehicle. It is rarely deployed outside of the Sons of Horus and Emperor's Children Legions as its lack of firepower make it a poor assault vehicle unless properly supported by a detailed battlefield strategy.

Unit Composition

- 1 Land Raider Spartan

Vehicle Type

- Tank

Transport Capacity: Twenty

Wargear

Forward Facing Pintle Mounted Heavy Bolter
Rear Facing Pintle Mounted Heavy Bolter
Two Lascannon side sponsons
Searchlight
Smoke Launchers

Ceramite Shielding
Assault Ramp

Heavy Bolters: The Heavy Bolters cannot be fired from within the Spartan and may only be operated by passengers using the top fire point.

Fire Points: The Spartan is designed for its passengers to be able to use their own weapons in its defence with formidable protection. Up to six models may use the battlements with surround the castle-like top deck of the Spartan as a fire point. They may fire their own weapons or may use the forward and rear facing Heavy Bolters. The vehicle remains enclosed and the passengers cannot be harmed unless the vehicle is destroyed.

Ceramite Shielding: In order to resist the heat of melta weapons and thermal blasts the Spartan is armoured with thick ceramite shielding. Melta Bombs and weapons with the 'Melta' special rule never roll an extra dice for armour penetration against a Spartan.

Venerable: Only one in ten Land Raider hulls are worthy of adapting into Spartans and it is a task that the Martian Mechanicum take great pains over. The Vehicles Machine Spirit is tasked with its self repair and the preservation of its passengers rather than the ballistic duties demanded of it in other patterns. The Spartan is extremely hard to cripple and whenever they suffers a glancing or penetrating hit you may ask your opponent to re-roll the result on the Vehicle Damage table. However, you must accept the second result, even if it is worse.

Transport Capacity: May carry up to 14 models.

Dedicated Transport: Any unit which has purchased a Rhino may replace it with a Martian Mechanicum Termite for +20 points.

Wargear

Twin-Linked forward facing Meltagun mounted in hull
Drill mounted in the hull
Searchlight

Subterranean Assault: At the beginning of the controlling player's first turn, you may choose up to half (rounding up) of the Termites kept in reserve to make a Subterranean Assault move. Termites making this move arrive on the player's first turn using the Deep Strike rules. The arrival of the remaining units held in reserve is rolled for as normal.

Movement: Once emerged, the Termite capsule becomes permanently immobile.

Termites, like their larger cousins the Mole and Hellbore, are used as subterranean transports to deliver units across the battlefield under enemy entrenchments and defences.

Drill Attack: Any model assaulting the Termite in its front arc takes a S8 hit from the drill on a 4+ before any attacks are made. The hit ignores armour saves and penetrates vehicles on 2d6.

Tunneller: Termite Capsules enter play from reserve, even if reserves are not normally allowed by the scenario being played. When the capsule arrives you may place the pod anywhere on the table as long as it is not in impassable terrain or within 1" of an enemy model. Roll a Scatter dice, if a hit results the capsule emerges on target otherwise it scatters 2D6" in the direction shown. If this movement would take it into impassable terrain or within 1" of an enemy model reduce the scatter distance by the minimum necessary to avoid it/them. Once the capsule has emerged, the exit doors blast open and all passengers immediately disembark. The passengers may not move or assault that turn. They may shoot or run but count as moving.

The sabre Tank Hunter was a rarely seen variant used by the forces loyal to the Emperor to combat the phalanxes of warmachines and armour employed by Horus' forces. A variant of the Vindicator siege tank, it replaces the demolisher cannon with a Neutron Laser Projector. This marvel of technology was hard to maintain outside of the Martian Mechanicum and in prolonged campaigns most Sabres were converted to the more easily maintainable Vindicators.

Neutron Laser Projector

Range 60" Str 10 AP 2 Ordnance 1, Blast

750 POINTS

	BS	FRONT	SIDE	REAR
Storm Bird	4	12	12	10

Unit Composition

- 1 Storm Bird

Vehicle Type

- Super Heavy Flyer

Structure points: 5 Structure points

Transport Capacity: 60 (even Assault Marines and Terminators only count as a single model aboard a Storm Bird)

Access points: One access hatch on each side and a front and rear assault ramp (units disembarking from a Storm Bird may assault on the same turn it lands).

Special Rules:

- Hover Mode
- Ceramite Shielding

The Storm Bird is a super-heavy transport capable of transporting six squads of Astartes from an orbiting warship to the battlefield below. At nearly twice the mass of the newer Thunder Hawk gunships, the Storm Birds are veterans of the Unification Wars and are slowly falling out of favour with the Astartes. Their large size and requirement for a larger landing field makes them more vulnerable to enemy fire and more difficult to insert into the heart of the warzone where the Astartes can excel. That said it is a design which has stood the Armies of the Emperor well on countless battlefields for over three centuries.

Wargear

- Two under wing mounted twin linked Autocannon
- Nose mounted rotary Autocannon (this counts as two twin-linked autocannon)
- Turret mounted rotary Autocannon (this counts as two twin-linked autocannon)
- Two pairs of under wing bomb pylons (a pair under each wing for four pylons in total)

Options: May exchange any of its 2 pairs of bomb pylons with two Hellstrike missiles (72" range Strength 8 AP 3 Ordnance)

Large Target: Because of its size and relative speed for atmospheric flight shooting attacks against the Storm Bird are made using the firer's normal BS rather than hitting on 6s.

Ceramite Shielding: In order to resist the heat of atmospheric entry a Storm Bird has thick ceramite shielding. Melta Bombs and weapons with the 'Melta' special rule never roll an extra dice for armour penetration against a Storm Bird.

Bombing Run: For each bombing run the Storm Bird may drop a pair of bombs which is resolved as a Str 6 AP 4 Apocalyptic barrage (6) weapon. This can be done once per pair of bomb pylons, after which the Storm Bird is out of bombs. Example: If the Storm Bird has replaced a pair of bomb pylons with Hellstrike Missiles (giving it two missiles) it has a pair of bomb pylons remaining. The Storm Bird in the example may therefore make a bombing run for a single turn after which it is out of bombs.

The Ultima Pattern switches the large wings and engine nacelles for large directional turbines. During key stages of the Heresy, many damaged Storm Birds were retrofitted to the Ultima Pattern by both sides and used as drop ships at Istvan, Calth and Prospero.

Currently residing in the body of Sanguinius former Equerry whom was slain at Signus Prime, 'The Red Angel' is an ancient daemoniac entity that has manipulated events on a thousand worlds for his own purposes. Swearing allegiance to no particular Chaos Power, his aid is given to those armies which battle to achieve his own mysterious goals.

Special Rules

Wargear

Transport

- 'The Red Angel' may not be transported.

Psyker

'The Red Angel' must attempt to cast a psychic power at the start of its movement phase. If the power is successfully cast it randomly manifests one of the following powers. 'The Red Angel' may choose to cast additional powers after each successful power is generated. All powers are generated in the beginning of the Movement phase but some may only come into effect later that turn. Each additional power generated (re-roll duplicates) causes 'The Red Angel' to suffer an unsavable wound each time.

1 Terrify – All enemy units with a model within 12" of 'The Red Angel' immediately take a Pinning test.

2 Re-Knit Host – 'The Red Angel' immediately regains d6 wounds (cannot exceed starting wounds).

3 Teleport – Immediately remove 'The Red Angel' from the battlefield and Deep Strike anywhere on the table and may assault after arrival. The 'Red Angel' cannot benefit from any ability that affects deploying via Deep Strike (such as a Locator Beacon).

4 Bloodboil – At the beginning of the Shooting Phase, place the Ordnance template over 'The Red Angel'. All models touched by the template (including 'The Red Angel') take an immediate Str 5 AP 3 hit.

5 Timeshift – 'The Red Angel' may assault 12" this turn and has 2D6 attacks rather than D6.

6 Warp Strength – Add +D3 to 'the Strength and Toughness of The Red Angel.

THE PRIMARCHS

The Primarchs were the twenty genetically-engineered "sons" of the Emperor. The Emperor used his own DNA in their creation, and they were designed to be far superior to the average human: larger, stronger, hardier, faster, and smarter. They were also incredibly charismatic, as their main role was to be generals and leaders of the Imperial military. They were created in a secret underground laboratory on Luna under tightest security. However, the forces of Chaos managed to spirit them away just prior to their maturation. These were scattered across the galaxy, beyond the Emperor's reach, and all of them landed on different worlds. The Emperor could sense that the Primarchs were alive, but was unable to reach them. The genetic material of each one of them was used to found a single Space Marine Legion, twenty in total. As the Emperor found them, he was generally pleased by their actions, and quickly gave them the leadership of their respective legion. Now that several of the Primarchs have turned from the Emperor it is the grim duty of these brothers to wage war and slay one another.

All models with the designation Primarch count as two models for transport purposes (except Magnus who count as three due to his size). Primarch's benefit from the following special rules:

Independent Character

Eternal Warrior

Relentless

Invulnerable 4+ Save

Deep Strike

Fleet

Acute Senses

Feel No Pain

Majestic: Primarchs may be targeted by shooting even if they have joined a unit (unless he is leading a unit of Primarch Honour Guard).

Inspiring Presence: The Primarch and any allied Space Marine units within 12" of the Primarch are Fearless. In addition, all models in a unit containing a Primarch gain the Counter Attack special rule.

Titanic Might: Such is the power of the Primarchs that they may re-roll all failed rolls to wound with close combat and shooting attacks.

Heroic Strike: Instead of making their normal attacks in close combat, the Primarch may instead make a single attack which hits and wounds automatically. Against vehicles it causes an automatic penetrating hit against its target. The Heroic Strike is AP 1.

Primarch Armour: The artifice incorporated into the armour of the Primarchs means that none but the most determined of attacks can penetrate it. The armour provides a 1+ armour save (remembering that a roll of a 1 is always a failure).

Fallen Hero: Should a Primarch be reduced to 0 wounds or be taken out of the game in some manner, do not remove the model from the table. Instead place the model on its side (as practically possible). The model now forms an additional objective in Planetstrike, Seize Ground and the Capture and Control missions. In Annihilation and Planetstrike missions the Primarch counts as D3 kill points. Furthermore all allied Imperial units that remain within 6" of the gravely wounded Primarch gain the Counter Attack and Fearless universal special rules and all Astartes of the Primarch's Legion on the battlefield are Fearless.

THE LEGION ASTARTES

Using the Space Marine Legions in the Horus Heresy

The following rules are used during all games set during the Age of the Emperor: The Horus Heresy. These rules override any conflicting text found in individual army codices. All Space Marine Legions use Codex: Space Marines.

Tactical and Devastator squads may replace any Missile Launcher with an Autocannon at no additional cost.

All Storm Bolters must be replaced by Twin-Linked Bolters. Sternguard Veterans may not purchase Storm Bolters or Twin-Linked Bolters (but nice try for thinking it!)

During the Horus Heresy the Legions made heavy use of large infantry formations. Tactical and Devastator squads may include up to an additional fifteen Space Marines to a maximum unit size of Twenty Marines including the Sergeant. Squads of ten or more models may use the Combat Squads rule and must be split into two equal sized squads and so may only use this rule if the squad is of an even number of models. Special Weapon and Heavy Weapon options that are available if the squad numbers ten models are available for a second time if the squad numbers twenty models.

Only one unit of Assault Marines in the army may be equipped with Jump Packs. Vanguard Veterans have no such restriction.

Vengeance rounds are not available to Sternguard Veterans or any other unit with access to Special Ammunition.

Unit types that are listed as Space Marine Captains may take a Command squad as per page 132 of Codex Space Marines. Command squads may be equipped with jump packs for +50 points for the unit. The Legions loyal to the Warmaster have abandoned the Council of Nikea. You may include as many Librarians as you wish (subject to normal force organisation restrictions).

Any unit armed with Assault Cannons must replace them with a twin-linked autocannon (also known as a Reaper Autocannon). If the Assault Cannon is twin-linked then it is replaced with a quad-gun (see pg 18 of the Planetstrike rulebook).

Any vehicle that may be armed with Extra Armour may be armed with a Havoc Launcher: The havoc launcher fires a cluster of high explosive missiles. The launcher has the following profile – Range 48”, Strength 5, AP5, Heavy 1 Blast Twin Linked. A Havoc Launcher costs 15 points.

Though in the 41st Millennium vehicles such as the Razorback, Land Raider Crusader, Land Raider Helios, Land Raider Redeemer and Predator Annihilator are commonplace, they remain either undiscovered or awaiting further testing during the Age of the Emperor. However, on occasion vehicles with similar capabilities were employed during the Age of the Emperor, though in far smaller numbers. As a result only two Razorbacks, one Land Raider Helios, one Land Raider Redeemer, one Land Raider Crusader, one Land Raider Prometheus and one Predator with a twin-linked lascannon turret may be included in an army.

Any Space Marine Bike squadron may be upgraded to Jetbikes at +5 points per model. Any Attack Bikes may be upgraded to Jetbikes at +5 points per model (although they are known as Chariots). Any character that may purchase a Space Marine Bike may instead purchase a Jet Bike for +40 points. Jetbikes are armed with a twin linked bolter. If a Captain is mounted on a Jetbike his Command Squad may purchase Jetbikes for +130 points for the squad.

A single Baneblade or Shadowsword in appropriate Legion colours may be upgraded to a Fellblade or Fellsword for +75 points. It is BS 4 but otherwise remains unchanged.

LEGIO XVI - THE SONS OF HORUS

At the conclusion of the Ullanor Crusade, the Emperor declared it the greatest victory yet for his mighty Imperium and was said to bestow much praise upon the Luna Wolves and Horus for their part in the campaign. At the subsequent Triumph of Ullanor, the Emperor himself bestowed upon Horus the title of Warmaster, making him the supreme commander of the Emperor's forces. The Emperor also suggested, before he returned to Terra and left the rest of the Crusade to Horus, that Horus should rename his legion to cement his position as Warmaster. The Horus Heresy truly began after Horus was wounded on the moon of Davin, a place that was cursed by the foul Chaos Gods. The wound caused by the blade refused to heal, despite Horus' super-enhanced immune system or the efforts of the Sons of Horus' best apothecaries. While ill, Horus was taken for healing by the Davinites.

During the rituals, Horus' spirit was transferred into the Warp where the Chaos Gods portrayed themselves as the victims of the Emperor's psychic might who had no interest themselves in controlling the material world. Horus, already having grown jealous and deeply resentful of his perceived poor treatment at the hands of his father, the Emperor, proved all too willing to accept the Ruinous Powers' false visions of an Emperor determined to make himself a god at Horus' expense. Horus had decided that if anyone deserved to be worshipped as a god it was he, and not the Emperor. He accepted the offer of the Chaos Gods to join their cause and in return they healed his wound and granted him the powers of the Warp. The Chaos Gods' pact with Horus was simple: "Give us the Emperor and we will give you the galaxy".

Some time later, finely wrought copies were gifted by the Warmaster to several of his more ferocious assault captains. The Wolf Claw thereafter became both a badge of favour as well as a potent weapon. In game terms all models armed with Lightning Claws in a Sons of Horus army may declare at the start of each close combat tht they are re-rolling their failed hits in close combat rather than their failed wound rolls.

LEGIO III - EMPERORS CHILDREN

The Legion's history begins with the descent of their Primarch Fulgrim to the resource-poor world of Chemos. Old technology was restored, lost areas reclaimed, and the people of Chemos were able to spend time on art and culture. Fulgrim took pride in this, as he harboured a love of perfection in all things.

When the Emperor first arrived on Chemos Fulgrim swore fealty to him instantly, and was placed at the head of his Legion. Fulgrim addressed them, stating that they would go out into the Galaxy and spread the wisdom of the Emperor. "We are His children," he told them, "Let all who look upon us know this. Only by imperfection can we fail him. We will not fail!" Allied with the Warmaster Horus for much of the Crusade, the influence of the Dark Gods has twisted their quest for perfection and pride and has led them far from their Emperor's side. Now they stand against Him along with their brothers.

When the Maraviglia was performed to the Legio III, the subtle shift in the warrior's ideology became monstrously manifest. Thoroughly corrupted by the powers of Slaanesh, the performance conjured not only daemonic presences upon the stage, but also infused the instruments of the orchestra with the power to produce effects disorientating, stimulating and thoroughly lethal. With the deaths of the majority of the orchestra themselves in the resultant orgy of deviance, Captain Marius Vairosean was the first Astartes to lift one of these daemonic instruments and play it, discovering its unusual effects could be directed, and the sensations wielding it's power produced. In that moment Marius became the first Noise Marine.

Marius took his weaponised instrument to war with him on the fields of Isstvan V. Now completely depraved, Marius had fixed wraps of skin from the Maraviglia dead to his armour with spikes, had his ears removed and his eyes forever sewn open. His mouth was forever unnaturally wide open, contorted by the foul experience of the Maraviglia.

LEGIO IV - IRON WARRIORS

Almost immediately upon being placed under the command of their primarch, Perturabo, the IV Legion found itself being plunged into a seemingly never-ending series of campaigns. Quickly recognised as experts in the art of siege warfare, the Iron Warriors were regularly called upon to exercise their skills in cracking open enemy defences.

Switched from one combat zone to another, the legion also found itself constantly diminishing in active crusading size as units from it were detached to act as garrison troops watching over worlds in the process of Compliance. The most famous of these garrisons was that of the Iron Keep on Delgas II, where one 10-man squad of Iron Warriors watched over a disgruntled population of 130 million.

It is unknown why the Iron Warriors were so often selected for such assignments, or why Perturabo always accepted such orders without protest, but it began to inflict serious damage to the legion's morale. This growing disillusionment would eventually translate into a tragic explosion of despair and rage as the Iron Warriors learned that their own homeworld, Olympia, had revolted against Imperial rule.

Briefed on the situation by the Warmaster Horus himself, Perturabo drew his legion away from the extermination campaign they were waging upon the Hrud and led them homewards, falling upon the world with no mercy. The planet was battered into submission, with over 5 million of the inhabitants killed. In the aftermath, the legion as a whole seemed aghast at their actions, aware that they had committed an unforgivable atrocity.

LEGIO VIII - NIGHT LORDS

A short time into the reign of the Night Haunter, the Emperor's Great Crusade reached the outskirts of the Nostramo system. The coming of the Emperor of Man was an event that had been prophesied in Nostramo's history: an event that would lead to the planet's downfall. The Emperor landed on Nostramo, and led a delegation to the centre of Nostramo Quintus on foot. At the end of the broad road leading to Night Haunter's palace, the Primarch stood, waiting for the delegation to approach. As they did, he succumbed to a vision so potent and horrifying that he tried to claw his own eyes out, but was stopped by the Emperor. "Konrad Curze, be at peace, for I have arrived and intend to take you home." Night Haunter then looked at the Emperor "That is not my name, Father. I am Night Haunter, and I know full well what you intend for me."

Night Haunter quickly adapted to the teachings of the Imperium of Mankind, studying the complex doctrines of the Adeptus Astartes under Fulgrim's tutelage. Konrad Curze was soon accepted as the leader of the VIII Legion, which he named the Night Lords. Although he and his Legion excelled in many theatres of war, a tendency soon became apparent. It never occurred to the Night Lords to use anything other than total and decisive force to achieve their goals. Over the first few years, the Night Lords were moulded by their Primarch into an efficient, humourless force. Night Haunter encouraged his legion to decorate their armour with images designed to inspire fear in the enemy, a tactic that proved incredibly effective.

Soon, rumours of the impending presence of the Night Lords would cause a system to pay all outstanding tithes, cease all illegal activities and put to death any mutants and suspected heretics. Reinforcements to replace the Night Lords that fell in battle were selected from the population of Nostramo, but in Night Haunter's absence, the population of the planet collapsed back into the corrupt and decadent ways that had prevailed before his arrival. The ruthless criminals were the only ones to remain healthy and strong, so it was these men who were recruited for the Legion.

Screaming Sculpture Drop Pods are used by the Night Lords to sow misery and fear amongst their foes. The Night Lords make use of almost all of their prisoners in this fashion. The prisoners find it strange when these terrifying warriors keep them fed and healthy, loading them into the drop pods aboard their strike cruisers. It is only when the pod lands and the razor sharp blades punch through their limbs and intestines that the prisoners finally learn of their true purpose. The Pod doors swing outwards and the impaled prisoners are hoisted up by pneumatic pistons so that their agonising screams are projected by vox casters across the battlefield. Medication and stimulants injected into the prisoners ensure that by the time they finally expire, the battle has long been won by the Night Lords.

Wargear

Screaming Sculptures (a weapon destroyed result destroys all sculptures)
Locator Beacon

Screaming Sculptures: Each drop pod is deployed separately and acts as a separate unit in all cases. Once the pod lands its unfortunate occupants begin to scream. All enemy units within 18" suffer a -1 Leadership Penalty. Those within 12" suffer a -2 leadership modifier and those within 6" suffer a -3 modifier. This penalty is not cumulative.

LEGIO XII - WORLD EATERS

The Primarch Angron was stranded on a technologically advanced planet with a poor and downtrodden population ruled over by an elite class of nobles. The most popular form of entertainment for the masses was gladiatorial duels between cyber-enhanced warriors, and destiny had it that one of the gladiator slavers would find the young Primarch. Angron was mortally wounded when he was discovered, almost killed by alien warriors.

Angron survived, and over the next years would become the greatest gladiator the planet had ever seen. A discontent one, having plotted his escape for years he finally led his fellow warriors in an armed revolt. A revolt doomed to fail, however, as the newly arrived Emperor warned him, for the forces under the nobles vastly outnumbered the gladiator band. Angron with his martial pride refused to listen to or receive aid from his father; preferring an honourable death to outside help. The Emperor did not accept this, and teleported Angron to his Battle Barge the night before the last battle. The gladiatorial army was slaughtered to a man and Angron's honour was blemished. It is said he never forgave his father for the incident.

The World Eater Legion was already active by the time Angron joined them. They would soon be influenced by his thirst for battle, amplified by the use of psycho surgery similar to that Angron had received during his gladiator training. These implants turned the already fierce Space Marines into frenzied berserkers so feared that whole systems would eventually surrender rather than face them in battle. The technology was unstable, however and was forbidden by the Emperor after the Ghenna Scouring, in which the World Eaters wiped out an entire planet during one night.

Angron commanded his loyal First Captain be installed in a Dreadnought so he could continue to fight at his Primarch's side. The near death state combined with the psycho-surgery he had received at Angron's hand resulted in an insatiable bloodlust in Bale. This burning hunger sees him collecting skull sand having the Legion artificers attach them to his sarcophagus in tribute. Who this tribute is for, Bale will not say, but it is presumably to his Primarch – for who else would appreciate such a display?

LEGIO XIV - DEATH GUARD

When Mortarion took command of the Legio XIV, known at the time as the Dusk Raiders, he brought with him the relentlessness, remorselessness and resilience that life on the savage world of Barbarus had taught him. In turn the Legio adopted his retinue's title as their own and henceforth were known as Death Guard. The resulting prowess of the Death Guard was recognised from the moment Mortarion began to instruct them, but the young Primarch never settled in Imperial society outside of battle. Mortarion was a grim, driven Primarch, fixated on reckoning with the oppressors of the galaxy. The easy camaraderie of the other Primarchs was alien to him and he found kindred spirits in only two: Night Haunter, the dread master of the Night Lords, and Horus, the Warmaster of the Imperium, the right hand of the Emperor. Horus above all others recognised the value of the Death Guard. He would often place Mortarion and his Legion in the centre of his battleline, counting on the enemy's inability to oust them so that he could either lever his advance from the rock of Mortarion's bolter firing immovable position, or use it as the anvil upon which the Imperial hammer, in the form of his Luna Wolves, or the Haunter's Night Lords, would break the foe. It was a mercilessly effective combination.

In the charismatic Warmaster, Mortarion found a mentor who seemed to understand his goals and appreciate his methods. So close did Mortarion appear to be to Horus, in fact, it is believed that at least two of the other Primarchs, Roboute Guilliman of the Ultramarines and the ever watchful, ever taciturn Corax of the Raven Guard, approached the Emperor with concerns about where the master of the Death Guard's loyalties lay. The Emperor is said to have dismissed their concerns with a wave; loyalty to Horus was de facto loyalty to the Emperor.

Death Guard Havoc Sergeants train their squads in achieving victory through close range special weapons fire. This combines both the training of Mortarion and the history of the Legion when it was known as the Dusk Raiders.

LEGIO XV - THOUSAND SONS

Prospero was, as records go, pure desolation. However, the first settlers of the planet built a city of rarely seen beauty. Inside this citadel, the outcasts devoted themselves completely to the study of their psychic mutation in order to master their powers. Thus, Magnus could freely develop his full potential far from the sight of man. Time passed and Magnus went from student to adept and from adept to master. When he reached adulthood, someone whose coming he had long foreseen arrived on Prospero: the Emperor.

As legend tells, the two recognized each other immediately. The Emperor of course acknowledged the giant to be one of his long-lost sons and thus, granted Magnus primacy of the Thousand Sons. Bearing Magnus's gene-seed, the XV legion had a predisposal towards mutation and a considerable number of their ranks inherited their Primarch's psychic capabilities.

Initially, the Thousand Sons' display of psychic powers was reluctantly tolerated, as it proved to be a powerful weapon during the Great Crusade. Serious suspicion began to surround Magnus as the hate towards mutants and psykers spread through the Imperium. Eventually, the Council of Nikea was held to settle the matter and as a result Magnus vowed never to use sorcery again.

Nevertheless, in secrecy, Magnus still pursued that dark knowledge he so coveted and practiced sorcery, as he firmly believed it would be for the best of mankind. And certainly, had mankind's leader not closed his mind, it would have been for the best. Magnus foresaw an opportunity coming where he could demonstrate how his gifts could avert a catastrophe unlike any the galaxy had witnessed. He need only wait...

LEGIO XVII - WORD BEARERS

Lorgar led his Legion throughout the Great Crusade, the Word Bearers seeking to eliminate all blasphemy and heresy within the new Imperium. Ancient texts and icons were burned. The construction of vast monuments and cathedrals venerating the Emperor was supervised. The greatest Chaplains of the Word Bearers produced enormous works on the divinity and righteousness of the Emperor, and gave grand speeches and sermons to the masses. However, the Emperor was not pleased with the lack of progress the Word Bearers were showing, and was even more dismayed at their religious zeal; one of the main goals of the Great Crusade was to free Humanity from the ignorance of religion. And so the Emperor personally reprimanded Lorgar. Lorgar was said to mourn the Emperor's command for a month, speaking to nobody, wearing only hairshirt robes.

It was this event that turned the Word Bearers to Chaos. Whilst Lorgar brooded over the Emperor's reproach, Kor Phaeron, his trusted lieutenant and closest friend, whispered to Lorgar of the great Chaos gods: beings that welcomed, even demanded zealous worship and devotion. Lorgar was slowly poisoned against the Emperor by Kor Phaeron, who was appointed Master of the Faith, and was tasked with converting the entire legion to Chaos. The Legion kept their new devotion secret, until Warmaster Horus declared his own faith in Chaos, and began the galactic civil war known as the Horus Heresy. The Word Bearers quickly joined the rebellion, and many of the worlds they had conquered since their conversion turned as well, having been corrupted by the Word Bearers during their conquest.

LEGIO XX - ALPHA LEGION

The greatest secret about the Alpha Legion Primarch is apparently told to none outside the Legion, and has always been thus. For, unlike any of the other Primarchs, Alpharius has an identical twin: Omegon. Alpharius and Omegon are both the Primarch of the Legion, although 'Alpharius' is the public face and appears as the more senior of the two. Though as both are identical it is possible for them to switch roles and have 'Omegon' play the public role. They have been described as one soul in two bodies and collectively have been referred to as simply Alpharius Omegon.

The last Legion created, work on the XX Legion was begun only some few decades before the discovery of their Primarch, Alpharius. As a result, when Alpharius/Omegon took command of the Legion, it was young, zealous and completely committed to embracing the Primarch's directions. Alpharius believed that secrecy and fluidity brought success, and taught his Legion to apply all such military techniques to both their training and their operations. The Legion's victories in the Great Crusade all feature some form of subterfuge, misdirection or rapid, unexpected movement. Such victories required great skill and dedication to achieve, and the Alpha Legion quickly became an insular and proud formation.

After Alpharius' disagreements with Roboute Guilliman, the Alpha Legion threw themselves even further into their preferred method of operations, largely cutting themselves off from standard Imperial practices and orchestrating greater and greater victorious examples of their approach to the Crusade, even when more conventional attacks would have been more efficient. When asked why the Legion had not taken simpler strategy, Alpharius is reported to have replied that they avoided it as it would have been too easy. This brought him censure from almost his entire brother Primarchs; only Horus, always impressed by Alpharius and his work, praised the Alpha Legion's skill.

The first batch of Alpha Legionaries were notably tall and strong even for members of the Astartes, physical attributes which suited Alpharius' focus on misdirection. For the Primarch put into place a directive that, as far as possible, all Alpha Legion marines had to attempt to look alike; and the visage they patterned themselves on was that of Alpharius/Omegon. As a result, all Alpha Legionaries were at the very least shaven headed, with many going so far as to have cosmetic surgical alteration. Their height also made it easier for them to be confused with the Primarch, although the twins were still the tallest in the Legion. When asked by non-Legion members, all Legionaries gave their names as "Alpharius", even when more than one was present. This was an extension of the Legion's philosophy that they were a body of one that could strike in many places at once.

If you include either Alpharius or Omegon then all units in your army, except those in Terminator armour, exchange the Combat Tactics special rule for the Infiltrate universal special rule. Additionally, you gain +1 to reserve rolls and may re-roll Outflanking deployment. If more than one character in your army has the Legion Tactics special rule then you must choose which version will apply.

I'm Alpharius: Alpharius and Omegon do not start play like a normal unit. Instead, at the start of any allied turn, the Alpha Legion player may declare that any friendly Alpha Legion infantry model (including a named character but not including Omegon or Alpharius) on the table is in fact Alpharius or Omegon. This decision does not need to be made before hand and the model chosen can have suffered wounds and be engaged in assault. Immediately replace the selected model with a model representing Alpharius or Omegon. Replaced models count as slain. The model now has the exact profile indicated here and even though wounds may have been suffered or other abilities impaired they are immediately restored. Weapons are those of the model Alpharius or Omegon has replaced (so choose carefully!) but all special rules and other wargear are replaced by the Primarch special rule. The Alpha Legion Primarchs wear Primarch Armour.

Cell Objective (Alpharius): Once the mission has been determined, roll again for the mission on page 91 of the 5th Edition Warhammer 40,000 rulebook. This additional mission is worth an extra campaign point if the Alpha Legion Player completes it by the end of the game. If the mission generated is the same as the main mission, then the Alpha Legion player gains two extra campaign points for completing the main mission.

Deceive Your Foes (Omegon): Redeploy d3 enemy units before Scout moves and Planetstrike Firestorms. Cannot be used on embarked units or units in Bastions.

Alpharius believes that secrecy and fluidity brings success, and teaches his Legion to apply all such military techniques to both their training and their operations. The XX Legion's victories in the Great Crusade all feature some form of subterfuge, misdirection or rapid, unexpected movement. Such victories required great skill and dedication to achieve, and the Alpha Legion have quickly become an insular and proud formation.

THE IMPERIAL ARMY

When the Emperor left Terra on the Great Crusade, it is said that he would expect the inhabitants of the worlds he conquered to maintain defences and armed forces for their own safety, against internal rebellion and external invasion. It is out of these forces that the Imperial Army was first formed. Initially used as garrison forces, they were quickly pushed to the forefront of the Crusade. Many regiments became renowned during the wars of the Horus Heresy such as the Archite Palatines, Byzant Janizars, Geno Five-Two Chilliad and Outremar.

Using the Imperial Army in the Horus Heresy

Armies must be selected using Codex Imperial Guard with the latest FAQ from Games Workshop's website. Please contact us at the Tempus Fugitives if you do not understand this point.

IMPORTANT: The Imperial Army is normally deployed under the command of the Astartes Legions. As a result your army's first HQ choice must always be an Independent Character from Codex Space Marines or this campaign pack. Space Marine Independent Characters taken in this way may issue up to 2 orders a turn exactly like a Company Commander and count as being equipped with a vox.

You must specify which Legion your Space Marines are from and as such can take 0-2 characters and upgrades from the Astartes section of this campaign pack. This includes an HQ choice if taken from the Astartes Legion section. Benefits (such as Legion Tactics or Rites of Battle) apply only to the Astartes and not to members of the Imperial Army. You cannot take Astartes units from more than one Legion.

You may take Tactical or Assault Squads from Codex Space Marines as Elites choices. The Marine units have the options available to them from their Codex including Rhinos and Drop Pods. You may not include any Astartes units other than those mentioned here.

You may use the rules for Imperial Guard variant army lists found in Imperial Armour except for Armoured Battlegroups.

Though in the 41st Millennium vehicles such as Hellhound and Leman Russ variants are commonplace, they remain either undiscovered or awaiting further testing during the Age of the Emperor. However, on occasion vehicles with similar capabilities were employed during the Age of the Emperor, though in far smaller numbers. As a result only one squadron of Hellhound, Bane Wolf, Devil Dog, Leman Russ Punisher or Leman Russ Annihilators may be included in an army. All Imperial Army tank squadrons may include up to five vehicles

The 'Bring It Down' order applies to shots against Primarchs and Primarch Honour Guard.

Imperial Army forces may take Land Raiders (C:SM pg 81) as Heavy Support choices for +240 points per Land Raider. Land Raiders bought for the Imperial Army may be given any vehicle options available to the Land Raider as laid out in Codex Space Marines but have a Ballistic Skill of 3. They may not take other Land Raider variants.

Any Imperial Army Company Command Squad may be equipped with Jetbikes at +15 points per model. Each model receives +1 T and has an armour save of 4+. Models equipped with Jetbikes count as Jetbikes rather than Infantry. Imperial Jetbikes are armed with twin-linked bolt guns.

Veteran squads or Storm Trooper squads may take jump packs at +50 points per squad.

Vogelthal joined in the Great Crusade, dreaming of fighting for the Emperor and liberating humanity, as the Emperor had liberated his people on Sebastus IV. Vogelthal was assigned to the Tobruskan Raiders, a mechanised regiment. After the Emperor returned to Terra, the Torbruskan Raiders were reduced to a scouting force and assigned to flanking duties during the campaign on Prosul.

During the battle for Steel Forge, Vogelthal received a commendation in the field and was promoted to the position of tank commander for his squadron. By the end of the campaign, he was commanding a squadron of Leman Russ Demolishers and had earned his twentieth confirmed kill.

During the assault on Lostik, Vogelthal was placed in command of a squadron of Leman Russ Punishers that were designated to protect the back line of the Basilisk Companies from enemy infantry and other obstacles. It was here that his insistence on firing while on the move and pushing the vehicles faster than they were designed to be pushed earned him the respect of the men and the enmity of the tech adepts.

The following spring, Vogelthal left his Punisher support section and took command of a Vanquisher company during Operation Citadel. On the first day of action, Vogelthal destroyed two anti-tanks guns and thirteen main battle tanks while saving an Astartes detachment that had come under heavy fire. During the push on the Citadel Vogelthal's Vanquishers destroyed thirty enemy tanks along with twenty-eight artillery pieces.

Decorated as a Palatine of the 63rd Expedition Fleet's armoured division, he received a commendation from the Warmaster's Equerry during the protracted six-week running battle which saw his Vanquishers destroy twenty alien warmachines along with twenty three infantry and anti-tank guns. That winter, Vogelthal took part in numerous engagements and destroyed a number of enemy tanks and guns. Which saw him receive the accolade of Knight' Commander for his outstanding service to the Great Crusade.

Prior to the Planetstrike on Isstvan III, Vogelthal received a visit from the Warmaster, flanked by his Mournival. The Primarch placed a small box in Vogelthal 's hands and said "In appreciation of your heroic actions in the battle for the future of our people, I award you the Laurel Wreath to the Knight Commander's Cross and name you my High Palatine. I trust that when called upon by your Warmaster, your armoured divisions will be available to us in the great battles to come."

The Serpent Lodge is a group of Chaos cultists on the planet of Davin. The Davinites were clearly of human gene-stock, but this offshoot of humanity had diverged into a species almost all of its own. They display a wide spacing of their features. The dark eyes without pupils and the excessive, almost simian volume of thick hair on their faces. Their warriors are feral in nature, devolving into a ferocious breed, immune to fear and dedicated to their Dark Masters.

Imperial Army regiments on Biotech-Worlds make use of cloning facilities to give them a near limitless supply of manpower. Not all Imperial worlds have access to this technology and there are many in the Imperium who views its wanton use suspiciously.

Squad Composition

- 1 Clone Sergeant and 9 Clone Troopers

We are Legion: Any Clone Trooper squad of three models or less may be removed from play at the start of the Imperial Army Movement phase. It counts as being destroyed by the opposing player and the first time it is removed it awards a Kill Point if the mission requires it. Once a squad of Clone Troopers is destroyed it may be immediately brought back into play as a new unit held in reserve. When reserves become available it is deployed as per the mission. Clone Trooper squads brought back into play do not award further Kill Points and no longer count as scoring. They arrive with as many models and exactly the same armaments as its full strength predecessor.

Its Okay, We're Only Clones: Clone Troopers have little value for their own lives. They are Fearless.

CHAOS DAEMONHOSTS

ELITE UNIT

IMPERIAL ARMY ONLY

95 POINTS

	WS	BS	S	T	W	I	A	LD	Sv
Daemonhost	4	4	5	4	4	4	D6	10	4+

A Daemonhost is a living mortal body used as a receptacle to bind a daemon, differing from a Possessee in that the creature has no control over the mortal body, but is "wielded" by another mortal.

Unit Composition

- 1 – 5 Daemonhosts (act independently)

Unit Type

Infantry

Special Rules

- Fearless
- Invulnerable 4+ Save
- Deep Strike
- Eternal Warrior
- Psyker

Wargear

Daemonic Claws (Rending)

Options

An additional four Daemonhosts may be purchased for +95 points each. They may be deployed and act independently from each other and are considered separate units. They may not be transported in vehicles.

Psyker

The Daemonhost must attempt to cast a psychic power at the start of its movement phase. If the power is successfully cast it randomly manifests one of the following powers. The Daemonhost may re-roll the random power but suffers an unsaveable wound each time it does so.

1 Terrify – All enemy units with a model within 12" immediately take a Pinning test.

2 Re-Knit Host – Regain all lost wounds.

3 Teleport – Immediately remove from the battlefield and Deep Strike anywhere on the table and may assault after arrival. Daemonhosts cannot benefit from any ability that affects deploying via Deep Strike (such as a Locator Beacon).

4 Bloodboil – At the beginning of the Shooting Phase, place the Ordnance template over the Daemonhost. All models touched by the template (including the Daemonhost) take an immediate Str 4 AP 3 hit.

5 Timeshift – The Daemonhost may move and assault 12" this turn and has 2D6 attacks rather than D6.

6 Warp Strength – Add +D3 to the Daemonhost's Strength and Toughness for the turn.

The terrifying product of selective breeding, torture, drug injectors and surgery, the savage fury of the warhounds can tear apart their foes in seconds. No infiltrating units may be deployed within 18" of a Warhound. Additionally, Merhyll and her Warhounds may re-roll their Sweeping Advance test when pursuing a fleeing enemy. Attacks from the unit count as rending. When the last Warhound is slain, Merhyll loses these abilities.

THE MARTIAN MECHANICUM

"Toll the Great Bell once! Pull the Lever forward to engage the Piston and Pump... Toll the Great Bell twice! With push of Button fire the Engine and spark Turbine into life... Toll the Great Bell Thrice! Sing praise to the God of All Machines!"

Using the Martian Mechanicum in the Horus Heresy

Armies must be selected using the Horus Heresy edition of Codex Cult Mechanicus found on the Tempus Fugitive's website. Please contact us at the Tempus Fugitives if you do not understand this point. Martian Mechanicum forces use their units and weapons as exactly stated in the Codex Cult Mechanicus and are not altered for this campaign (so assault cannons really do count as assault cannons!)

"I have not come this far to turn back, Regulus," stated Kelbor-Hal.

"Moravec was branded a witch," said Regulus. "Did you know that?"

Biologis – Land Crawlers are no longer 0-1. Kelbor Hal increases his Feel No Pain roll to 4+.

Cybernetica – Legio Cybernetica Cohorts are no longer 0-1 and may re-roll failed Mindlock tests if within 12" of Kelbor Hal.

Mandati – A master tactician, the army may re-roll the dice to Seize the Initiative at the start of the battle and while Hal is on the battlefield may re-roll one reserve roll each turn.

ATHENA, SISTER OF CYDONIA

ELITE UNIT

MARTIAN MECHANICUM ONLY

120 POINTS

	WS	BS	S	T	W	I	A	LD	Sv
Athena	5	5	4	4	3	5	3	10	4+

Coven Composition

- 1 Athena (Unique)

Unit Type

- Infantry

Wargear

- Neuro Gauntlet
- Plasma Gun
- Frag Grenades
- Melta Bombs

Special Rules

- Fearless
- Move Through Cover
- Feel No Pain
- Relentless
- Infiltrate
- Dodge (5+ Invulnerable save)

Athena, like all Cydonian assassins of the Machine-God, is rightly feared throughout the Mechanicum. Their skills are less widely known beyond the Red Planet but it is because of their protocol of not leaving witnesses that this is so...

Neuro-Gauntlet: This is a close combat weapon. Roll to hit as normal, but don't roll to wound. Instead each hit causes one wound on a D6 roll of 4+ regardless of the target's Toughness, and with no Armour save allowed (Invulnerable saves may be taken as normal). Vehicles hit by a neuro-gauntlet take a glancing hit on a D6 roll of 6, regardless of the vehicle's Armour value.

Combat Drugs: Athena can charge 12" in the Assault phase (or double the distance of the dice roll if moving through difficult terrain). When Athena charges into combat, she gains an extra D6 Attacks rather than just +1 Attack.

Bio-Meltdown! If Athena is killed, place a Blast marker centred over the model. So terrible are the energies released by a dying Sister of Cydonia that any model touched by the template takes an automatic Strength 5 hit, with no armour saving throws allowed. Athena is then removed from play.

DATA-DAEMONS

ELITE UNIT

MARTIAN MECHANICUM ONLY

165 POINTS

	WS	BS	S	T	W	I	A	LD	Sv
Data-Daemon	4	3	5	5	2	1	2	5	3+

The Legio Cybernetica is one of the oldest parts of the Mechanicum. Its records stretch back to the times before the Imperium. The Legio has a long history, and its members found amongst the armies of the Warmaster regard themselves as an elite battle force priding themselves that they were first amongst the Mechanicum to declare for Horus during the Great Heresy. Binding Data-Daemons to the frames of their robots, these cybernetic constructs are powerful shock troops able to wade into the fiercest of opposition without flinching.

Cohort Composition

- 3 Data-Daemons.

Unit Type

- Infantry – Data-Daemons count as two models for transport purposes.

Special Rules

- Fearless
- Relentless
- Scrapcode
- Abominable Intelligence

Wargear

- Lightning Claw
- Servo Arm

Options

- The Cohort may include up to an additional two Data-Daemons for +55 points each.
- Any Data-Daemon may replace its Servo Arm with one of the following weapons: a heavy flamer at no additional points cost, an autocannon, missile launcher or multi-melta at +10 points, a lascannon at +15 points or plasma cannon at +20 points.
- Any Data-Daemon may purchase an additional Lightning Claw at +10 points.
- Any Data-Daemon may replace either Lightning Claw with a power fist at +10 points or a thunder hammer at +15 points each.

Abominable Intelligence: Possessed as they are by malign spirits, the Data-Daemons are unrelenting in their pursuit of their prey. Data Daemons may re-roll failed to hit rolls in the first turn of an assault where they charged.

Scrapcode: Data Daemons in combat with a vehicle may exchange their normal close combat attacks for a single attack using the corrupting tech-language known as scrapcode. Instead of making its normal attacks, the Data Daemon may make a single roll against the targeted vehicle on the table below: 1-3: No effect, 4-5: A single Glancing Hit, 6: A single penetrating hit

THE CHAOS DAEMONS

To understand Chaos, which is in itself impossible, one must first understand the warp. The warp is a dimension adjacent to ours, in which emotions and thoughts can become living things, which can manipulate the warp and indeed the minds of mortals. These creatures are sustained by the thoughts of mortals, and seek more and more of these thoughts. For these creatures to gain this, specifically thoughts which taste fine to them, mortals must worship them, and in return those who worship a certain god are gifted with abilities and powers beyond imagination, for instance those gifted by Tzeentch are granted powers over sorcery and arcane knowledge, while those gifted by Nurgle are granted viral based mutations, such as extra limbs or other such things. It should be known, however, that too many blessings can often result in the person becoming a warp spawn, forever mindless and feral.

Planets can become caught midway between our realm and the Realm of Chaos. These Daemon Worlds fall under the rule of terrible daemon lords such as Kyriss the Perverse, Greater Daemon of Slaanesh and Ka'Bandha, Arch Daemon and Lord of all the Bloodthirsters. They raise for themselves vast palaces and daemon hordes rampaged across the surface, utterly destroying hundreds of years of civilization. The entire populace is butchered, enslaved, or corrupted.

Using the Chaos Daemons in the Horus Heresy

Armies must be selected using the most recent edition of Codex Chaos Daemons with the latest FAQ from Games Workshop's website. Please contact us at the Tempus Fugitives if you do not understand this point.

Daemonic Characters found in Codex Chaos Daemons may be taken in this campaign.

Mesh of Flesh: Do not deploy Gida'Ljal using the Demoinic Assaulty rules. Instead, when it becomes available as a reserve, nominate a non-vehicle enemy unit anywhere on the battlefield. That unit takes 2d6 Str 4 AP 3 hits. Once casualties are resolved, add up the total number of unsaved wounds caused. Place Gida'Ljal 1" away from the targeted unit with wounds equal to one plus the number of unsaved wounds caused. Gida'Ljal may act as normal in the assault phase.

Writhing Mutation: Gida'Ljal is forever shifting to the whim of Slaanesh. Each time a characteristic is used, randomly generate it as required. That characteristic remains at that value until the end of that phase.
